

Drama Techniques for the English Language Classroom

This interactive, experiential course includes personal language development concentrating on oral fluency and colloquial English. Participants are introduced to various drama techniques to use in the English language classroom to encourage young learners to experiment with spoken English in an imaginative and personal way. Suitable both primary and secondary teachers.

COURSE DATES

Sun 1st - Sat 14th July 2018

Sun 15th - Sat 28th July 2018

Sun 29th July - Sat 11th August 2018

SAMPLE PROGRAMME

	Morning session	PM session
Sun	Travel to Exeter. Met on arrival by homestay host. Evening meal with homestay host
Mon	Introduction to IPC and course. Needs Analysis	Tour of Exeter with your IPC guide
Tue	Group Building, Teamwork and Cooperation	Rationale for Using Drama in the English Language Classroom
Wed	Opening the Imagination and Developing Spontaneity	Half day trip with your IPC guide
Thu	Roleplay, Simulation and Improvisation	Personal Language Development
Fri	Storytelling. Introduction of Course Task	Preparation time for course task (unguided)
Sat	Guided day trip to Tintagel and Boscastle with your IPC guide
Sun	Free day to spend with your homestay host or make your own plans
Mon	Working with Texts	Personal Language Development
Tue	Creating a Piece of Theatre	Personal Language Development. Course task preparation time
Wed	Full Day trip with your IPC guide
Thu	Drama in a Social Context	Delivering Course Task and Feedback
Fri	Playing the Part. Course Closure Activities and Course Closure	