Host Family (Homestay) Half Board

Choosing a homestay offers a unique way to extend your knowledge of the Maltese way of life and provides an excellent opportunity to practise your English.

The host families vary. Some are families with children, others are retired couples and some are single persons. We will try as much as possible to match you with a family we think you will feel comfortable in.

Rooms are for single use, unless you specifically ask to share a bedroom with a colleague. The bathroom is shared, although this is often a separate bathroom allocated to guests, apart from the Host Family bathroom. Towels and bed linen are provided and laundry is done once a week. Rooms in homestays are not air-conditioned, a ventillator fan is provided during the summer months.

Your hosts will provide, bed, breakfast and an evening meal each day, including weekends. Our home stay hosts will always try hard to accommodate dietary requests, such as catering for a celiac-free diet (wheat-free) diet or lactose intolerance. Please supply us with all information necessary in this regard when registering so that we can accommodate your needs. In the case that specialist food is required, there is an additional charge of € 50 charge.
