

First Certificate for Teachers of Business English (London Chamber of Commerce International Qualification)

"I have enjoyed all the sessions. They have been very inspiring for my future performance as a Teacher of English Language."

- María Jesús Garzón Jordán, July 2016

This course has been designed to provide professionals from either a business or teaching background with the knowledge and skills to sit the London Chamber of Commerce First Certificate for Teachers of Business English. This is an internationally recognised qualification which may be taken in Exeter at the end of the course and will incur an extra fee. The course can also be used as an opportunity to refresh knowledge and skills as well as an opportunity to exchange ideas and acquire new teaching skills.

COURSE DATES

Sun 15th - Sat 28th July 2018