Training in 4 dimensions

York Associates' unique 4-dimensional approach®

York Associates' unique and industry-leading approach integrates 4 dimensions into its language and international communication training - English, professional communication, intercultural and international collaboration skills.

- English language training gives clients the words and structures to speak fluently and confidently.

- Professional communication training gives clients the skills to present, take part in meetings and to negotiate.

- Intercultural skills help people to understand and manage cross-border diversity.

- International collaboration skills help people to work more effectively together.

- We offer a range of courses which focus on these dimensions in different ways - some courses more on language, some more on collaboration. The course key below the course descriptions helps clients choose a learning solution which is customised to their specific learning and professional needs.

About York

York will keep you as busy as you want to be. There is so much to visit and discover. York Minster is one of the largest Gothic cathedrals in northern Europe dating back to the 13th century and famous all over the world for its huge stained glass windows. It is just one of the many extraordinary places to visit.

There are over thirty museums, galleries and tours to experience in the city. York's Jorvik museum is a world-famous exploration of Viking culture. The National Railway Museum houses one of the best collections of steam engines and carriages anywhere. The Castle Museum offers amazing examples of recreated rooms and streets for you to experience English history.

The historic city of York also boasts an exciting festival programme all year round. York Chocolate Festival in April, The Early Music Festival in July, horse racing events throughout the summer months, the Festival of Food and Drink in September are all worthy of special mention. York has been named by Trip Advisor as Europe's 5th best city and UK's top food and wine destination. It's also known as the Home of Chocolate because of the large Nestlé (Kit Kat, Smarties and Aero) and Terry (Chocolate Orange, All Gold) factories located here.

Entertainment has also been part of York's social fabric for over two thousand years and the city now has a wonderful choice of cafés, pubs, restaurants and wine bars where you can relax with other participants and visitors from all over the world.

Whether you prefer to stroll or cycle around the city, visit some of its historic sights, discover ghosts on one of the many organised ghost tours in the city centre, walk the Chocolate trail, buy gifts at some of the famous shops which line the medieval streets of York or engage in sportier activity such as golf, tennis, cycling, swimming or horse-riding, we guarantee that you will find there's lots to do in York for the duration of your stay.

Travel to York

York is one of England's most beautiful, historic and popular cities. Originally the capital of England and now capital of the north, it is a stylish and vibrant city which is regularly voted as one of the best places in the UK to visit and in which to live because it has so much to offer.

Getting to York

Travel to York is easy whether you arrive by taxi (45-minute drive) from Leeds Bradford Airport or catch a direct train from Manchester International Airport (2 hours) or from either London Heathrow or Gatwick airports (3 hours).

Getting around York

The historic city of York is an almost entirely traffic-free zone. This makes it very safe and easy to walk around to explore its medieval streets and enjoy its many sights. You can also cycle as York is one of the main cycling cities of the UK with very affordable bike rental and over 100 miles of designated cycle routes in and around the city.

Travelling outside of York

York is well connected to many major cities. For example, you can easily reach central London (King's Cross Station) by train in just 2 hours, while Edinburgh is 2.5 hours away. If you want to venture further, you can get to Paris by Eurostar from London in just over 2 hours.

Accommodation

We offer a wide range of accommodation options to suit your preferences and budget, ranging from homestay to hotels.

Homestay

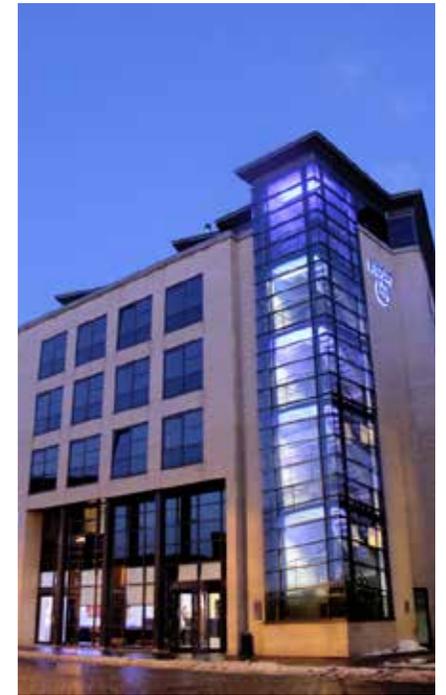

A homestay allows you to be fully-immersed in an English-speaking environment and experience family life in Britain.

Both Standard and Executive homestays are available. Standard homestays (single room with sharing bathroom on B&B) are within 45 minutes walk of Peasholme House while Executive homestays (single room on HB) are within twenty minutes of Peasholme House.
